

Holiday Open House in Boston

Saturday, Nov. 11, 10 AM-4 PM

Whether you want to put the finishing touches on Thanksgiving or you're looking for fresh, new ideas for Christmas, Boston is the place to be on Saturday, November 11! The Boston Business Association is sponsoring a Holiday Open House and all of the specialty shops will be open for your shopping convenience and the restaurants welcome you for lunch!

In addition to unique shopping opportunities, there will be live entertainment in Watt Park. The Dance Academy of Thomasville will perform on stage from 10 AM – Noon. Back by popular demand, this group of enthusiastic young dancers are heart-warming to watch and always fun!

At 12:30 PM, Greg and Jay, The Country Boys take the stage. Playing a wide variety of music including classic country, new country, blues, gospel, R&B, and southern rock, all members of the band are seasoned musicians. Jay, who is Jay Farlow, grew up in Boston from age 6 and has fond memories of playing music at a young age in his mother's café. Farlow has played with various bands over the years and performed with many iconic musicians, including The Drifters, Percy Sledge, and Tom T. Hall. Greg Haire hails from Ft. Lauderdale; he is a great guitarist and vocalist. Haire has played in clubs all around Florida and also at the Grand Ole Opry.

You have a special invitation to enjoy a beautiful fall day in Boston, GA; get a head start on your holiday shopping and enjoy the live entertainment. Check out our website, www.bostonga.com or call Donna Davis, president of BBA, at 229-413-1626.
